

The Calgary Board of Education’s (CBE) Lighthouse Awards program gives recognition for an organization’s contributions to the CBE, its schools and its programs. All organizations partnered with the CBE are eligible with the exception of those who have received the award within the last 5 years for the same program/service.

The criteria for selection are as follows:

- Amount and significance of the support provided by the organization
- Scope of the support provided by the organization (how many programs or efforts is the organization involved with)
- Impact of the organization in relation the School Development Plans, CBE Results and Three Year Education Plan
- Length of time the organization has worked with the CBE
