Definitions 1 In this regulation

(a) "administrator" means a certificated teacher who is a director, principal, assistant principal, vice-principal, coordinator, department head, supervisor, or a specialist;

(b) "evaluation" means the formal process of gathering and recording information or evidence over a period of time and the application of reasoned professional judgement by a principal in determining whether one or more aspects of the teaching of a teacher exceeds, meets or does not meet the teaching quality standard;

(c) "notice of remediation" means the written statement issued by a principal to a teacher where the principal has determined that a teacher's teaching does not meet the teaching quality standard, and such a statement describes

(i) the teaching standard that is expected,

(ii) the behaviours or practices that do not meet the teaching quality standard and the changes required,
(iii) the remediation strategies the teacher is advised to pursue, and

(iv) how the determination will be made that the required changes in behaviour or practice have taken place, applicable timelines, and the consequences of not achieving the required changes including, but not limited to, termination of a teacher's contract of employment;

(d) "principal" means a principal as defined in the School Act, or a certificated supervisor who is responsible for the supervision of non-school-based teachers who do not receive an administrative allowance;

(e) "review body" means a group of two or more teachers delegated by the principal to review the teacher professional growth plan if the principal and faculty determine that a delegated group will be established;

(f) "supervision" means the on-going process by which a principal carries out duties in respect to teachers and teaching required under section 20 of the School Act, and exercises educational leadership;

(g) "teacher" means an individual who is required to hold a certificate of qualification as a teacher and who is responsible for the provision of instruction or supervision under section 18 of the School Act, and who is employed by the Calgary Board of Education but does not include an administrator;

(h) "teacher professional growth plan" means the career-long learning process whereby a teacher annually develops and implements a written plan to achieve professional learning objectives or goals that are consistent with the teaching quality standard and meet the requirements of sections 5, 6 and 7 of this regulation;

(i) "teaching quality standard" means the authorized standard and descriptors of knowledge, skills and attributes as defined in the Teaching Quality Standard Ministerial Order.

The purposes of this regulation are

(a) to provide a process for superintendents, principals and teachers to work together to achieve the teaching quality standard, and
(b) to ensure that all teachers are responsible and accountable for meeting the teaching quality standard throughout their employment with the Calgary Board of Education.

(2) Any action undertaken in good faith under this regulation does not constitute personal harassment under Administrative Regulation 4027.2 - Personal and Sexual Harassment.

Responsibility to parents

3 Principals must explain the process for teacher growth, supervision and evaluation to their parents through a presentation at a school council meeting.

Application

4 Part 1 and Part 2 of this regulation apply to a teacher who is employed by the Calgary Board of Education

(a) under a probationary contract;
(b) under a continuing contract, or
(c) under an interim or temporary contract of 110 or more teaching days.

PART 1
TEACHER PROFESSIONAL GROWTH PLAN
ROLE OF THE TEACHER

Responsibility of a teacher

5 Each school year a teacher is responsible for developing, implementing and completing a teacher professional growth plan that

(a) is teacher authored, growth-directed and continuous,
(b) reflects an assessment of professional learning needs by the individual teacher,
(c) shows a demonstrable relationship to the teaching quality standard, and
(d) takes into consideration the education plans of the school and the Calgary Board of Education.
A teacher professional growth plan must include
(a) goal(s)/objective(s),
(b) expected outcomes and desired results,
(c) action plans/strategies,
(d) assistance/support,
(e) timelines, and
(f) descriptors of completion/indicators of success.

A teacher must work towards the attainment of their teacher professional growth plan through ongoing action and personal review.

Subject to the approval of the principal, a teacher professional growth plan
(a) may be a component of a long-term, multi-year plan or
(b) may include a component of supervising a student teacher or mentoring a teacher.

A teacher may choose to have their teacher professional growth plan reviewed by
(a) the principal, or
(b) the review body, if a review body has been established.

The teacher must submit a copy of their teacher professional growth plan within 60 days of the commencement of the school year
(a) to the principal, and
(b) to the review body, if applicable.
Retention of teacher professional growth plan

11 The teacher must retain a copy of their teacher professional growth plan and a copy is retained for the school year by the principal and the review body, if applicable.

Teacher professional growth plan review

12(1) Teacher professional growth plan review is a process for reflection and includes 2-way communication between the teacher and the principal or the review body.

(2) The principal or review body must arrange for and complete an oral review of the teacher professional growth plan within the last 60 days of the school year.

Compliance with regulation

13 The principal or the review body, in consultation with the teacher, must make a finding whether the teacher has completed the requirements of a teacher professional growth plan that complies with this regulation.

Disciplinary action

14 If a teacher professional growth plan review finds that a teacher has not completed the requirements of a teacher professional growth plan that complies with this regulation, the teacher may be subject to disciplinary action.

Use of the teacher professional growth plan in evaluation

15(1) Unless a teacher agrees, the content of a teacher professional growth plan must not be part of the evaluation process of a teacher.

(2) Notwithstanding section 15(1), a principal may identify behaviours or practices of a teacher that may require an evaluation provided that the information identified is based on a source other than the information in the teacher’s teacher professional growth plan.

Return of teacher professional growth plan

16 The teacher professional growth plan and any attachments must be returned to the teacher at the end of the school year.

SUPERVISION OF TEACHERS

| Purpose of supervision | 25(1) | The purpose of supervision by the principal is (a) to provide support, guidance and developmental opportunities for the teacher, (b) to observe and receive information from any source about the quality of teaching a teacher provides to students, and |
(c) to identify the behaviours or practices of a teacher that for any reason may require an evaluation.

(2) It is the teacher's responsibility to receive and act on feedback received through supervision to improve the teacher's professional performance.

Ongoing supervision 26 The principal must

(a) provide ongoing supervision for all teachers in the school, and

(b) seek to be satisfied that a teacher's teaching meets the requirements of the teaching quality standard.

Relevant information 27 In the normal course of duties, a principal

(a) may receive information from any source and make observations about the quality of teaching a teacher provides to students, and

(b) will share relevant information and observations with the teacher on an on-going basis.

Educational leadership 28(1) In exercising educational leadership, a principal may provide assistance, support, guidance and developmental opportunities to a teacher to improve the teacher's quality of instruction.

(2) The assistance provided in section 28(1) may vary in nature depending upon the teacher's learning needs and professional circumstances.

Results of supervision 29 When, through supervision, a principal believes that a teacher's behaviours or practices may not meet the requirements of the teaching quality standard, the principal

(a) may work with the teacher directly, as a part of the principal's program of supervision, to provide assistance to change the behaviours or practices that may be problematic, or regulation, and may initiate an evaluation.

(b) may initiate an evaluation.

38(1) When, as a result of an evaluation, a principal determines that a teacher's teaching does not meet the teaching quality standard, the principal must

(a) issue a notice of remediation to the teacher,

(b) offer a program of assistance, consistent with the notice of remediation, to the teacher, and

(c) undertake a subsequent evaluation, after no more than 100 school days.

(2) If the principal concludes that the teacher's teaching meets the teaching quality standard, the evaluation is complete.

(3) If the principal concludes that the teacher's teaching still does not meet the teaching quality standard, the principal must recommend

(a) an additional period of remediation,

(b) disciplinary action, or

(c) termination of the teacher's contract of employment.

(4) If a teacher's contract of employment is not terminated, the evaluation continues.

(5) A notice of remediation may replace the teacher's obligation to develop, implement and complete an annual teacher professional growth plan and the teacher must comply with the notice of remediation.

39(1) A teacher may ask the Chief Superintendent to review the teacher's evaluation to ensure compliance with this regulation.

(2) A request for a review of an evaluation must be made within 10 calendar days of the teacher receiving the evaluation report and must outline in writing the teacher's reasons for the request.

(3) Upon receiving a request for a review of a teacher's evaluation, the Chief Superintendent or designate must conduct a review and render a written decision within 21 calendar days.
Other action  40  This regulation does not restrict

(a)  a principal from recommending disciplinary or other action, as appropriate, where the principal has reasonable grounds for believing that the actions or practices of a teacher endangers the safety of students, constitutes a neglect of duty, a breach of trust or a refusal to obey a lawful order of the school authority, or

(b)  the board or the Chief Superintendent from taking any action or exercising any right or power under the School Act.

PART 5
