For Immediate Release

CALGARY — Remembrance Day is a time to recognize the sacrifices made by Canadians in armed conflicts. Media are invited to join students from Juno Beach Academy of Canadian Studies, veterans, dignitaries, government representatives, and military representatives to honour Canadians who died in war and conflict throughout Canada’s history at “The Field of Honour,” where many of Calgary’s war dead are buried.

Wreaths will be laid to the sound of bagpipes to salute those who died. Juno Beach students will also plant Canadian flags on the graves and lay poppies at the base of the memorial to honour those who died.
