“Dancing with the Hitmen” to be featured at Jan. 31 hockey game

CALGARY – The Calgary Hitmen are stars on the ice, but what about on the dance floor? During the first intermission at the Jan. 31 game against the Brandon Wheat Kings, the Calgary Board of Education will present a video showing the Hitmen’s journey as they learn and perform a dance routine with Central Memorial High School performing arts students.

This video is one part of the third annual “CBE Night with the Calgary Hitmen,” where our schools will feature their fine and performing arts programs.

Other highlights of the evening include the singing of O Canada by the Lord Beaverbrook High School Choir, a piper and colour guard from Juno Beach Academy of Canadian Studies, a demonstration of drumming from the Marimba Ensemble group from Alex Munro School, and a video featuring arts-centred learning at Sir John Franklin School.

Of every CBE ticket sold, $2 will go to Fuel for School, a breakfast program designed to give CBE students the nutritious breakfasts they need to succeed.
