opportunity |

The Calgary Board of Education is moving forward to create an Aboriginal Learning Centre at the Harold W. Riley School in the community of Dover. With the opening of this new learning centre many of the families that attend Piitoayis Family School will move to this new location.

The Aboriginal Learning Centre will provide support to our Aboriginal learners between the ages of 3 – 8 and their families.

need |

- We would like your feedback regarding possible accommodation scenarios for Piitoayis Family School once the Aboriginal Learning Center opens in 2016
