Auburn Bay School

March 22, 2016

What will the school hours be?

The tentatively proposed start time for school is 8:05 am. The end times are currently proposed for 3:10 pm (Monday-Thursday) and 1:00 Friday. Please note it is conceivable that the end times could be up to half hour earlier. We currently do not have the times for morning and afternoon kindergarten.

Will there be full day kindergarten?

No, there will be a morning and an afternoon kindergarten class. These classes will attend school on alternating Friday early dismissal days.

Will there be before and after school care?

The Calgary Board of Education does not provide before and after care programs. However, should a child care provider wish to offer this service in the school they would need to contact the Calgary Board of Education downtown office.

Will there be a French program at all? Or another language?

No. Auburn Bay School will offer regular education programming.

Will it open on time?

Construction is currently on schedule. Updates are posted on the "New School" section at www.cbe.ab.ca
